

14th International Symposium

World Society of Victimology

Justice for Victims: Cross-cultural perspectives on conflict, trauma and reconciliation
20-24 May 2012, The Hague, the Netherlands

14th International Symposium

The World Society of Victimology (WSV), the International Victimology Institute Tilburg (INTERVICT), the Leuven Institute of Criminology (LINC) and Victim Support Europe are pleased to invite you to participate in the 14th International Symposium. During the Symposium professor Paul Rock, professor Alex Hinton, professor Kathleen Daly and other renowned experts will address the three main themes Victims Rights, Transitional Justice and Trauma, Resilience and Justice in their keynotes. Together with academics, researchers, practitioners, policy makers, teachers and students from around the world they will examine and discuss current and emerging issues in the field.

Call for papers

The Scientific Committee of the WSV encourages the submission of proposals for a workshop, panel, round table or poster presentation. Abstracts can be submitted on the Symposium website until 1 March 2012.

Language

The official language of the Symposium will be English. Simultaneous interpretation in Spanish will be provided during the plenary sessions. Workshops and panel sessions in Spanish or French are possible.

Introduction to Victimology

The symposium will be preceded by an Introduction to Victimology on 15 and 16 May 2012. The course will be given in English. If there are enough Dutch speaking participants the course will also be given in Dutch.
